

HOW TO MAKE EXECUTIVE DECISIONS

USING ORACLE CARDS

Start with asking the Right Questions

STEP 1:

Tune in with an open heart and reverence.

The best way to approach the Oracle is with respect. You're going to connect with an open dialog with the Universe (Source/Divine/Higher Power etc). I like to treat this conversation like a sacred ceremony.

Focus on intending only the highest good and to do no harm and you're ready to go.

STEP 2:

Choose how to frame your question.

Ask your question with the intention to receive information for your (or others) highest good.

Avoid looking for finite answers that imply a “YES” or “NO” answer. You want to reveal a broader, more detailed picture of the energy fueling the situation.

For Example...

In a reading instead of asking,

“Should I take this job or project?”

(Don't ask this way, it's a yes or no question)

Ask a question that your soul would like you to know the answer to. Think of what you would need to know for your highest good or the highest good of others.

“What do I need to know about this job opportunity”

(Ask this way, it will reveal what you need to know for the highest good!)

Or say that you're in transition, maybe you want to leave the role you are in for more spiritually satisfying work or maybe take on different types of projects.

You might ask...

“For my highest good, what is the result of making this choice to go in this direction?”

Asking the question from the perspective of your soul's highest good will help show how you can move past things that may not be good for you, but especially, you will receive the messages that show you when you're back on the right track. When you're in alignment with the Universe that's where the real magic shows up!

STEP 3:

Ask what you need to know or steps that you need to take.

If you desire something, ask yourself why and what will you gain by pursuing it. Emotionally you can tell why you want it, but subconsciously you may want it for all of the wrong reasons, and sometimes to your detriment.

Asking what you need to know will help reveal the results of the situation or action and how you may end up feeling. It will also show you what part in any situation you play a factor in and how you can create an action to change it or advance it.

When you use the cards often enough, and learn to ask the question in a way that really looks to your highest good, life gets easier. You'll learn to trust the cards, but more than that, you'll learn to trust yourself. Because YOU are reflected in the cards. They are like mirrors that show you everything about you, not just what you're looking to see.

Example Questions

Here are some example questions that will help you understand how to frame the question for the highest good, and reveal what you need to know.

1. What would be the result of entering into a partnership with _____?
2. What can you tell me about this opportunity?
3. How will I feel working on this project?
4. What would be the result of _____?
5. What can I do to get along better with _____?
6. I want to take on new projects, what is the best way to make myself seen as valuable?
7. If I _____, what will the result be?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
